FLOOR DEBATE

March 25, 2002      LB 649

SENATOR TYSON: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: What does he do?

SENATOR TYSON: He is the city attorney.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do you think if he feels a bill is of sufficient interest to the Norfurkians (phonetic)...

SENATOR TYSON: "Norfolkians."

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...that you should take an interest in the bill?

SENATOR TYSON: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, the fact that he testified on this bill and he's from Norfurk (phonetic) indicates to me that maybe you would have a little interest in the bill. Is that true?

SENATOR TYSON: Like a great many things, Senator Chambers, that occur in this place, I take it on faith.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, now that I brought it to your attention, do you have an interest in knowing what the bill does?

SENATOR TYSON: I've just been told that by Senator Pederson.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Then would you explain to me what it does and I won't have to ask Senator Pederson because I was distracted. It does a little bit of this and that?

SENATOR TYSON: I would normally do so, but Senator Pederson, being far more adept at this than I, I would turn it over to him. How do you like that for a tap dance?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Senator Tyson. I would then ask Senator Pederson a question.
